MISCELLANEOUS READING.

COMMUNICATED. A few days since, in one of the hotels of SWAN & CO. CONTINUE TO DRAW AS Washington City, I picked up the Florida Sentinel," a newspaper published at Tallahassee, Florida, and found in it a communication, of

> "To the Florida Sentinel :-In your paper of August 30th, you re-publish that much admired effusion of the late Mr. Wilde, of Georgia --

"My Life is like the Summer Rose"equally admirable, me judice, usually attributed to the late Lieut. Hooe, of the Navy.

With something of local pride in this matter, we claim this little, though lustrous gem-"My Life is like the Scattered Wreck"- as the production of the South-of Florida,aye, of Tallahassee! It is an emanation, and not the only one. from the pen of one whom I really believe even his political enemies are proud to claim as a citizen of our State. I mean George T. Ward, esq .- a name better known in connection with politics than in the world of letters." Below we re-produce the imitation Stanzas referred to by our correspondent .- E.D. MY LIFE IS LIKE THE SCATTERED WRECK.

"My life is like the summer rose,"-R. H. WILDE. My life is like the scattered wreck, Cast by the waves upon the shore; The broken masts, the drifted deck, Tell of the shipwreck that is o'er. Yet from these relics of the storm, The marmer his raft will form, Again to tempt the faithless sea;

But hope rebuilds no bark for me. My life is like the blighted oak, That lifts its seer and withered form, Scathed by the lightning's sudden stroke, Sternly to meet the coming storm; Yet round that sapless trunk entwine The curling tendrils of the vine, And life and freshness there impart-Not so the passion blighted heart.

In the mid-ocean lone and drear: Worn by the wild-wave's ceaseless shock, That round its base their surges rear; Yet there the sea moss still will cling-Some flower will find a cleft to spring, And breathe even there, a sweet perfume; For me life's flowers no more will bloom. I am sure that "W. T. S.," the correspondent of the "Florida Sentinel," must be mistaken in attributing these beautiful lines to Mr. Ward, of Tallahassee. I recollect, that when they were first published some years ago, there was a reply to them by a lady of Clarke County, and that the reply was addressed to Lieut. Emmet Hooe; Remember that every prize is drawn, and -and in King George, his native County and place of residence, when not at sea, his friends, mediately after the drawing-other prizes at the | I believe, have always claimed them as his production.

My life is like the desert rock,
